ALMOST A RUNAWAY.—R. C. Badger's "old Whitey," known to be one of the gentlest of the horse kind, took fright yesterday, at the Horace Greeley flag that was being raised in front of Tucker Hall, and would have led the advance of many more that this flag will "move out," but for the timely presence of Mr. G. W. Wynne, who prevailed upon Whitey, that there was no use of kicking against the traces. Everything and everybody must yield to its great power. Mr. Wynne was successful, old Whitey yielded, and quiet and peace was soon restored.

PAUL B. MEANS.—We were pleased to see in our sanctum yesterday, Paul B. Means, Esq., of Cabarrus, on his way home from the Baltimore Convention. The young democracy of the Sixth District were, in him, most worthily represented.

THE SPEAKING AT METROPOLITAN HALL.—Last evening Senator Tipton, of Nebraska, and Gen. Filkins, of N. York, addressed the young men's Greeley & Brown Club at Metropolitan Hall. We have not space to give even a brief report of the efforts of these distinguished gentlemen.

The Hall was packed to its fullest capacity, and we never witnessed more enthusiasm within its walls.

NOT THE FIRST.—At the meeting of the Greeley and Brown Club at Metropolitan Hall last night, Gen. Barringer remarked that this was the first Greeley and Brown Club organized in North Carolina. Mr. Dossy Battle, of Rocky Mount, corrected this by informing the meeting that the honor of organizing the first Club in the State belonged to Rocky Mount—which was one day ahead of the Raleigh Club. Col. Gilmer, of Greensboro, stated that the honor belonged to his town, it having organized a Greeley Club two weeks ago.

To this Day replies as follows:

While he is not authorized to bind the labor organigation, such of its members as he has conferred with, unite with him in the importance of a joint action of all parties against what Day also terms monopolists and sportsmen. RALEIGH, N. C., March, 1872

Mr. Stillman, Agent of "The Howe Sewing Machine":

We have had your Machine in use in our family for four months, and can safely recommend it to the public for its simplicity, beauty as a piece of furniture, and as a "help" to those of us with large families. It is a "sine qua non." We have made with it, in addition to the usual household work, over one hundred garments, large and small, including Pants, Coats, Dresses, &c., some of which were heavily trimmed, two of the dresses containing from 100 to 125 yards of tucking. It is worked with much ease, requiring but little exertion. We would not be without one for three times its cost.

A Convention of Liberal Republicans of this State will be held in this city on 16th inst., to confer and adopt such measures as will best conduce to the maintenance of the Platform of principles, set forth by the Cincinnati Convention, and to the election of its nominees, Horace Greeley for President and B. Gratz Brown for Vice-President.

Not yet fully organized, it is believed we are numerous enough to give victory to the approaching contest, if we are true to the issues we have raised—the issues of Peace, Honesty and a higher political aim.

The signs of a powerful co-operation are of sufficient magnitude to justify the expectation that an unprecedented triumph will be achieved.

Though this notice has been unavoidably postponed, it is desired that as full attendance as possible may be had.

THE END OF RADICALISM.

The year 1870 was an era in our History. Radicalism had taken deep root in the State. Its fruits were beginning to ripen. The reapers were about to put their sickles in and gather the harvest.

But in 1870, the people burst their bonds and drove the workers from the fields!

Bitter was the disappointment of the Radical harvesters! But the people rejoiced, for though we had suffered, our burdens had not been beyond our capacity to endure, and we had escaped the fate to which the Radicals had prepared for us!

True, our Treasury had been pillaged—our stately Capitol had been made the scene of Bacchanalian revelry, and drunken orgies had polluted the legislative Halls—true, frauds and corruption had disgraced the administration of every department, and thieves and swindlers had increased our State debt to a fabulous amount—true, many of our innocent citizens, falsely accused and illegally convicted before a corrupt Judge and by a packed jury, had been subjected to the rigors of Northern prisons—true, eminent and honorable Conservatives had been seized and thrown into foul dungeons, and the Constitution being subverted and the laws set at defiance, our beloved State was put in peril of becoming the sad scene of a war of extermination. Yet notwithstanding all these things, we have cause to rejoice that the ultimate aim and objects of the Radical leaders were never attained in North Carolina, but we have been permitted to escape the dire results which they sought to accomplish.

Behold the sad calamities that have overtaken our neighbors in a sister State!

Not only a treasury plundered and a State rendered bankrupt; not only innocent citizens immured in Northern dungeons; but we behold a reign of terror and an era of savage despotism. Fourteen regiments of negro "National Guards," armed with repeating rifles and equipped at a cost of $430,000, holding riotous carnival over that beautiful section, and rendering the State a scene of war and terrific disorder; barbarity rampant, and christian civilization fleeing the borders of that doomed land.

In poor, mourning South Carolina, we witness the gradual development of Radical policy—we see in process of accomplishment that destiny which the Radical leaders promised us, but which a kind Providence has now averted forever. Even the pagans of olden time never placed the slave over his former master to wreak a barbaric vengeance upon a conquered foe. Yet such has been the ultimate object of Radicalism—the perfect consummation of its cherished hopes.

Mr. Carpenter, the Reform candidate for Governor in that unhappy State, swears before a Committee of Congress that "it was the key note of the last campaign that the negro owned all the property—but that it was in the wrong hands; that the white people had it by a trick—and that the negro ought to have it back again- that the way they proposed to do it WAS BY TAXATION; TO DRIVE THE WHITE PEOPLE OUT OF THE STATE BY MEANS OF HIGH TAXES; and" he adds; "I think they are succeeding very well in their method." "Joe Crews, the great agitator of strife between the two races, harangued the negroes from the stump, inciting them against the whites and their property—and telling them that "matches are cheap!"

Here is seen what Radicalism is doing in South Carolina! In this State the same ideas were promulgated.

Caldwell in 1868, published his address suggesting to the negroes to pursue such a devilish course as would kill the children of the whites through very fear; and to determine that the whites should have no shelter.

The convict roll at the Penitentiary shews the fate of the deluded negroes who followed his advice. Pilgrim Ashley and other departed worthies of infamous memories made "40 acres and a mule" the theme of their public speeches. Nor was their promise a mere unmeaning sound; they began the process by which it was to be accomplished.

High taxes in South Carolina worked the result. In this State taxation was to have been the instrument with which to fulfill the promise. As a beginning, to deprive the whites to of their land and turn it over to the Radical negro, the Legislature of 1869, presided over by T. R. Caldwell, levied 94 cents tax on every $100 worth of property in the State. This was to have been increased each succeeding year, until the end was attained, and the old white citizens had become an outcast in the land. Let us rejoice that by the defeat of the Radicals in 1870, this deplorable calamity was averted forever.

Caldwell, Pool and their associates will not live long enough to see their promises fulfilled if they should remain a pest on the earth until 1972.

REMEMBER that our beautiful capitol was converted into a den of iniquity during the reign of Littlefield, when Holden was Governor, Caldwell President of the Senate and Brogden a Senator.

CALDWELL, Brogden and Burns hope for their election, and think with pleasure of Littlefield's free-bars, that used to comfort them in days gone by.

THE SPEECHES OF SENATORS TIPTON AND STOCKTON.

We were prevented yesterday morning from giving a synopsis of the speeches made at the grand Mass Meeting in Weldon on Friday last, and we this morning give place to the remarks of Senators Tipton and Stockton, as reported for the Washington Patriot, the former gentleman representing the Liberal Republican element and the latter the feelings of the Democrats of the Democratic State of New Jersey—the two now united upon the Greeley platform the two speeches, immediately following the nomination of Horace Greeley, being significant of that concert of action between all parties opposed to the administration of Grant which insures the election of Horace Greeley in November next. Says the report:

SENATOR TIPTON'S ADDRESS.

Hon. D. M. Barringer then took the stand, and, after some remarks, introduced to the meeting Senator Tipton, of Nebraska, who was received with three rousing cheers. Mr. Tipton said that while the Whig party existed he was an earnest follower of Henry Clay, but when that party was overwhelmed by repeated defeats, and especially when its standard bearer, Winfield Scott, was struck down, that party was reformed and re-organized, with all the elements of opposition to Southern Democracy. He then became as extreme a Radical as he well could be and be healthy. He spoke of the disorganizing tendencies in the Republican party from the first, tracing them to the final disruption between the subservient Grant wing and the Liberal Republicans. The latter had early discovered that they would be required to legislate for the perpetuation of the power of a party upon the questions which arose upon the admission of Mississippi and Virginia. He was first accused of being refractory, holding, as he did, that the system of education should be under the control of the States, and not of the Congress; that they should be as free as Massachusetts herself to alter and remodel their schools at their own pleasure, without interference on the part of the General Government. In the second week of Grant's administration he discovered that when a Senator differed from the extreme wing of the party, or evinced a purpose to oppose any of its measures, he was to be reported to Grant, to be discontinued, and if he still remained refractory, he was to be politically executed. He alluded to the Missouri campaign and the effect of Grant's interference in the politics of that State. Carl Schurz having supported Brown in that contest, the President forthwith began to remove the Germans from office, and to assail him in every possible way, directly and indirectly. Carl Schurz was made to go on his knees and ask pardon for his offences, or to be politically damned or executed. Through him a lesson of discipline was to be taught to the Liberal Republicans of other States. What was the result of this policy of hunting down and persecuting the men who differed from them! It was the Cincinnati Convention and Liberal platform, endorsed on Wednesday last by the Democracy—a combination that will sweep him from political existence.

Of Mr. Greeley he spoke warmly; he was not without a claim upon the gratitude of the Southern people, as an advocate of amnesty in the face of bitter opposition which threatened him with a loss of influence and reputation if he persisted. Consulting no one; relying upon none but his own judgment, he risked everything in behalf of his humane policy. He (the speaker) had also opposed Mr. Greeley for being so fast with his amnesty, but he saw now that Mr. Greeley for being so fast with his amnesty, but he saw now that Mr. Greeley had been ten years ahead of them all, and in the face of all who advised him to the contrary, he put his name to the bailbond of Jefferson Davis. In this he risked his reputation and influence with his party, but his generosity feared nothing. The speaker related the history of Grant's interference in New York politics. Finding that he had lost everything in Missouri, he must win everything in New York By his aggressive and selfish policy there, undertaking to tyranize over office holders and to mould State policy to his own purposes, he lost the support of Mr. Greeley, and will lose that State at the November election by a Liberal majority of 100,000. The next move of Mr. Grant was against Alabama, and the result in that State will be a Legislature one third Democratic, one third Liberal, and one-third Grant men; and Alabama will send a Liberal Republican to the United States Senate. He then carried the war into Arkansas. He removed from office an honest United States District Attorney, who had begun to prosecute the ballot-stuffers. Mr. Grant did not approve of this. The result is, Arkansas will return an overwhelming majority against him. Nebraska was the scene of his subsequent operations. He gave his influence to a former colleague of mine, and the consequence was, the people repudiated my former colleague and retained another man. Mr. Tipton spoke of the tyranny of the Congressional caucus and its war upon the Liberal men of the party. All these efforts of the Administration and its supporters were to the end that power might be kept in the hands of General Grant for another term. That this war upon free speech, free discussion, upon the consciences of men, might be continued for four years longer, Grant had been elected upon the one-term principle distinctly. His New York organ declared at the time, that the one term principle might be accepted as an article of party faith; that the opposite principle would bring forth a fearful crop of treachery, lies, and corruption; and so, said the speaker, it has. The Radicals of Georgia had asked the Congress to legislate to allow the Legislature to hold power for two years and the Executive for four years longer. This was when the thieving Bullock was ruining the State. The Liberal men of the party saw that they must abandon the Administration and join the Liberal Republicans, or go down to infamy. Mr. Tipton dwelt with some bitterness upon the character and career of Morton. Upon every occasion he resurrects the dead bones of the war, varnishes the skulls, strings them upon wires, and shakes them before the people, and he would do this for twenty five campaigns to come. The speaker then touched upon the Ku Klux legislation. He said the Constitution had been invaded at the dictation of the President. The whole of this legislation, from first to last, was unnecessary, tyrannical, and unconstitutional.

He spoke of the enforcement act and the efforts to prevent its passage. The speaker said these were enough to show that there was nothing left for us but to unfurl a banner of our own. This is the banner of Liberal Republicanism. You Southerners have heartily accepted the issue with us, and together we will defeat the common enemy. Whatever can be done in North will be done. In the South you must leave no stone unturned. Every honest and legal vote must be brought out and polled for Greeley and Brown. It is no business of yours what Greeley has been if you know that he is an honest man. I, at least, care not what he is, if, as President of these United States, he does but attend to his legitimate duties under the Constitution, and seek not to invade the legislative branch. I am tired of this Executive dictation and interference with Congress. I am sick and tired of being asked whether the President approves or disapproves of this thing. Let him not intertere beyond his duty. If he approves a bill, let him sign it. If not, let him affix his veto and give his reasons. There his duty ends.

Mr. Tipton made a very effective close. Never did I set out (said he) expecting thus to clasp hands with your men of the South, my lifelong opponents. (So saying, he took the hand of Senator Ransom and shook it heartily, which action was received with a storm of applause.) But I do so, (he continued,) and with all my heart. Moreover, I cannot but honor your people of the South, that you have come forward so nobly to join with us in the work of reform, without a single word of reproach on your lips, self-sacrificing and forgetful of everything but the good of one common country.

The remarks of Senator Tipton were frequently interrupted with applause. The crowd at this time had swelled beyond all computation, and those most remote were continually crying "Louder!" At the close of each address there was a cannon salute and music.

SENATOR STOCKTON'S ADDRESS.

Senator Ransom introduced Hon. Jno. P. Stockton as the next speaker. He said there was a wide difference between the antecedents of the preceding speaker and himself. He was proud to say of himself that he had always been, was now, and would always be a Democrat. He was astonished at himself, finding he had come here to ask these people to vote for such a man as Horace Greeley. He was not surprised at his colleague, Mr. Tipton, for doing so; but for himself, he could hardly comprehend how it came about. He had been sent by the people of New Jersey to the Baltimore Convention without instructions. He believed that his constituents did not want him to vote for Mr. Greeley, and on the first ballot he was one of that small number who had voted against him. His people did not want Mr. Greeley; so far as they were concerned, they could have elected a Democrat. But the high court of appeals of Democracy said not, and, with a unanimity never before equalled, had nominated as their candidate their life-long opponent.

It was your Southern men who did this. You forced them upon us, and now we shall look to you in November to vindicate your wisdom. I believe, after all, it was a wise and good nomination. My objections to Mr. Greeley were not personal, but political. I know that he is an honest man, and that he will do justice to all. Providence has done this work, and I believe Providence has pointed out to us the only path to safety, security, and liberty. That Mr. Greeley will be elected in November I am sure. Mr. Stockton then stated his reasons for supporting Mr. Greeley. By the terms of Lee's capitulation, the Southern soldiers were to be unmolested so long as they remained quiet in their homes. If Mr. Lincoln had lived this compact would never have been broken, but the Government fell into the hands of extreme Radicals, and then began the iniquitous reconstruction legistation, Radical causes, &c. He dwelt at length upon the laws and measures devised for the oppression of the South; the shifts resorted to in order to retain political power, and yet to meet the public demand for the readmission of the seceding States. They inflamed the negroes against the whites, made them suspicious and distrustful of their former masters, and overran the South with carpet-bag emissaries to manage the colored vote by organizing leagues. Thus they trusted to retain power, to fasten themselves and their master, Grant upon the country until the people should be brought to say it's of no use, let Grant be President for life. The speaker related, among other instances Executive usurpation, the history of Grant's military domination over the New York election, when regiment after regiment fully equipped and with several days' rations, were posted about that great Democratic city to back the bullying minions of the Government in their attempts to manage the election. By the President and the Republican Congressional caucus there was more power exercised than by any of the most absolute despotisms of the world, and when we see the tyrants surrounded by corruption and hypocrisy, can we believe that degradation can go any deeper? This is a personal government, as Mr. Sumner says; Mr. Grant has made of its offices, sources of emolument for his friends and relatives. What sort of an example is this? What sort of a spectacle for the world to witness? Seven long years have elapsed since the war, and four years since General Grant said "Let us have peace." It was due from General Grant that he should give us peace. He had been well rewarded for his services, and he could ask for nothing more. Has he given us peace? No! It is declared upon the floor of Congress that there is no peace. Indeed, we will always be in a state of war while the party that lives by war only is in power.

The speaker used some severe terms in criticising the foreign policy of the Government, characterizing it as weak, foolish, and disgraceful. In diplomacy Mr. Grant acts like a horse trader. The negotiations with Great Britain had covered him with shame, and through him for the first time in our history the escutcheon of America is tarnished and the character of the nation destroyed. There was not manliness enough in the Government to retire when it found itself in error. The American Case was fairly kicked our of the Geneva Court. This Government is not only corrupt, but fearfully incompetent. The miserable infatuation of Mr. Grant, to suppose himself capable of conducting foreign negotiation, is ruining our reputation in the eyes of the world.

Mr. Stockton said if you do not elect Mr. Greeley at this election it is quite possible that you may never have another opportunity to elect anybody; indeed the world will see that free institutions are a failure. He defined liberty as being the right of local self-government; the right of every State, city, and county to manage its own affairs; the immunity from arrest without due process of law; the right of habeas corpus, which is not to be suspended except in times of war and invasion; the right that every citizen has to vote without a bayonet at his back. Every right and privilege named the Federal Government had ruthlessly violated. Mr. Stockton concluded with an eloquent adostrophe to liberty. Throughout his address he was frequently interrupted with applause.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

The crowd was afterwards entertained by Gov. Walker, of Virginia, Col. Hinton, of Norfolk, Va., Gen. Clingman and Gov. Vance.

After dinner the following gentlemen responded to calls: Messrs. F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, Thomas J. Person, of Northampton, and Thomas S. Kenan, of Wilson.

THE Radicals disregarded the limitation imposed in the Constitution on taxation, and levied 94 cents on every $100 worth of property. Judge Rodman, Radical Supreme Court Judge, now says that it the Legislature should again exceed the limitation, the Supreme Court will not declare the Act null and void. He doubtless expects that the Radicals will have control of the Legislature again—but he counts without his host. The people have declared against high taxes and unconstitutional revenue laws. They will elect only Conservatives to the Legislature.

THE New York World says: "By electing Mr. Greeley we shall heal the wounds of the civil war and restore harmony between the North and the South; and the certainty of a Democratic Cabinet and Congress gives fair promise of important subsidiary reforms."

REMEMBER that the sacred School Fund was invested in worthless Special tax bonds after Judge Pearson had decided these Bonds to be null and void—and that this investment was made to help along the swindlers, by trying to create the impression that the bonds were good.

LITTLEFIELD had two free bars in the Capitol building; we presume the State did not receive any rent for the bar-rooms.

Perhaps Caldwell can tell us, as he was President of the Senate at the time?

THE Radicals paid out of the State Treasury quite a pile for ice and corkscrews when they had control of the people's money.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.—The Rev. William H. Norton, while residing in Rome, N. Y., accidentally discovered in that town a remedy for Consumption, Scrofula, Sore Throat, Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Nervous Weakness. The remedy has cured myself after all other medicines had failed.
Wishing to benefit the suffering, I will send the recipe for preparing and using the remedy to all who desire it FREE OF CHARGE.
Please send an envelope, with your name and address on it. Address
REV. WILLIAM H. NORTON,

THE HISTORY OF A NATIONAL REMEDY. Here is the history of the most celebrated remedy of the age in a nutshell. In 1860 Congress appointed that a certain commissioner of vegetable ingredients, with a pure decisive stimulant, was working wonders in the cure of chronic dyspepsia, nervousness, debility, liver complaint, periodical fevers, rheumatism and constitutional weakness. The unpretending name given to the specific was PLANTATION BITTERS. The testimonial attracted the attention of invalids everywhere. The new remedy received a fair trial, and the results more than confirmed all that had been said in its praise. Thence forward it was a grand success. The business columns of the press spread the glorious news far and wide, and the demand to indigestion, billiousness, physical prostration and premature decay, as if by common consent, sought relief from the new vegetable restorative. They found what they sought. From that time to the present the increase in the demand for Plantation Bitters has been one of the most striking events in this age.
☞ For Coughs, Bronchitis and Consumption, in its early stages, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

DR. TUTT'S PILLS is a purely vegetable concentration for keeping the Bowels in natural motion and cleansing the system of all impurities, and a positive cure for Constipation. They restore the digestive powers of the Stomach and Kidneys, to a healthy action, at the same time they brighten and invigorate the whole system.

ROME, GA., January 11, 187[illegible]
DR. WM. H. TUTT:
Dear Sir—Having used your Liver Pills and finding none that have done me any good or myself as much good, I would like to know if they would do as well North as here. I intend going North in March, and if they will have the same effect as in this climate, I want to take them oh with me. Hoping to hear from you soon,
I remain, your obed't servant,
HENRY A. HITE.

Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye does not Stain the Linen.

A Pitiful Condition.

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands who have a habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure. In nine cases out of ten the state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.
Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to be followed afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever (as it assuredly would do if ordinarily alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.
How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question is founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time by administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain-head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.
By the time that a dozen doses of this great vegetable tonic and invigorant has been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve and brain, flows through the channels of circulation instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished. STATE MATTERS.

☞ Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

THE whole Democratic press of the State has hoisted the names of Greeley and Brown at their mast-head.

SAM PHILLIPS is to speak in Wilmington on the 20th, and Messrs. Wilson and Pool on the 18th.

H. E. REAMS, Esq., of Durhams, has invented and patented a blacking that, it is said, will take the shine off Mason's and all other blackings of the day.

C. M. T. MCCAULEY, ESQ., has been nominated as the Conservative candidate for Senator from Union and Anson counties. This District was represented last session by Gen. A. J. Dargan.

A CHILD of the Rev. Mr. Bernheim, of Wilmington, some three and a half years of age, fell from a two-story window a few days since, but fortunately sustained no serious injury. It, fell a distance of 22 feet.

A VOTE was taken in a passenger train over the Wilmington and Weldon road one day last week, and out of 29 votes upon the train, twenty seven were cast for Greeley—one negro man voting for Grant.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Norfolk Journal says that "a large and wealthy corporation will soon open a tobacco inspection warehouse at Henderson (on the line of the R. & G. R. R.,) on a grand scale, and the merchants feel that business will flow in upon them and give a new infection to trade generally."

THE Wilmington Journal of Saturday learns that a detachment of United States soldiers, under command of Col. Mendenhall, passed through that city on Friday en route for Robeson county. We are glad to see that some protection is at last to be afforded the unfortunate people of that county.

THE local of the Tarboro Enquirer says: In canvassing the county (Edgecombe) we have a good opportunity to see the crops, and have been forced to the conclusion that they are decidedly below an average this year. In many parts of the county there has been such an amount of rain that it is impossible to kill the grass. Some of the cotton, we think, is beyond redemption, it matters not what kind of weather we have from now out."

HON. D. G. FOWLE, J. A. Womack, Esq., candidate for Secretary of State, H. A. London, Greeley and Brown elector, and other speakers will address the mass meeting of the Democrats and Liberal Republicans of Chatham, at the following times and places, viz:

Trade's Hill, Wednesday, July 24th.
Henderson's Tan-yard, Thursday, July 25th.
Edward's Store, Friday, July 26th.
Harper's X Roads, Saturday, July 27th.

OUR MURFREESBORO LETTER.

MURFREESBORO, N. C., July 12th, 1872.

Dear News:

You will agree with us in saying that never save upon one occasion have we called attention to typographical errors in our communications. We prefer to leave their correction to the intelligent reader, but you must allow us to put in a gentle protest against the pranks of the types in our letter of last week. For "the distinctive social status of the South," the printer makes us say "destructive," thereby destroying all sense; and the many friends of the accomplished head of the musical department at C. B. F. Institute in Virginia and North Carolina, would never recognize, in Mrs. Moynck as printed in the NEWS, the name of Myrick, which we thought we wrote plainly. It may be that having been for some time a strong friend to Horace Greeley, we are disposed to imitate his beautiful chirography, which is said to resemble what we may reasonably suppose would be the effects of a bird with inky feet scratching upon the paper. We are for Horace for President, but cannot accept him just now as a writing-master. Messrs. Yeates and Grandy spoke at St. Johns, and Harrellsville last Friday and Saturday. From persons present at the first named place we learn that Major Yeates' reply was even better than it was here. His friends say that he covered himself with glory, and we predict for him one of the most successful campaigns ever made in Eastern Carolina. Grandy relies mainly upon the Ku-Klux outrages, when he is aware that we have had none in this section, and that the Conservative party never endorsed their acts. It is rumored that it can be proved on Chamberlain that he confesses to having been a Ku-Klux, and if it be so of course Major Yeates will charge it upon him.

Col. Carter and Cobb, of Ku-Klux bill notoriety, reached town yesterday, and addressed their fellow citizens in the evening. There is as much difference in these men mentally as there is physically. Physically Col. Carter is a giant weighing, as he informed us, two hundred and fifty pounds, while Cobb is on the Liliputian order. Carter is a man of the first order of talent, while Cobb would never be mistaken for a very near relative of Solomon, the wise man.

Cobb, who made the opening speech, devoted his hour to the laudations of the Radical party, to slurs upon Horace Greeley, and to a defence of the infamous Ku-klux bill, of which he is the pretended author. It is due to him to say that he is, perhaps, the most genteel leader of his party, in the State, and those who know him socially, pronounce him a very nice man.

Col. Carter, in reply, charged upon the Radical party, legislation hostile to the interests of the South, as evidenced by the cotton tax and the Ku klux bill, for the latter of which he held his competitor responsible. He did not mince his words in denunciation of these acts of tyranny, but boldly proclaimed them infamous. He did not hesitate to accept Horace Greeley, if endorsed by the Baltimore Convention as a compromise between the Liberal Republicans and Democrats. It is an alliance, said he, formed by these parties for a specific purpose—the overthrow of Grant, and when this purpose has been accomplished the alliance may cease. Col. C. made a fine impression, and will receive the entire Conservative vote at this place.

We understand that at Gatesville, day before yesterday, more than one thousand voters were out to hear the candidates, two-thirds of whom were whites. This would indicate that Gates county feels some interest in the ensuing election.

Messrs. Weston and Wooten, ministers of the Episcopal Church, have been holding a convocation here for the last few days. Services have been held at night and morning. Several other ministers were expected, but did not put in an appearance.

In this immediate section we have had very heavy rains recently, but there has been little injury to the crops. Reports speak favorably of the crops, and we hope that our people will be blessed with an abundant harvest.

The Campaign in Harnett County.

JOHNSON'S STORE, HARNETT CO., July 15th, 1872.

Editors Daily News:

Seeing that you request friends from the different Congressional Districts to report the progress of our cause, and the effects our candidates are making, I tender this short report of a speech made here on last Saturday by one of our gallant and able standard-bearers of the State ticket, John A. Womack, of Chatham, who was followed in an able and effective manner by H. A. London, Jr., Elector for 4th Congressional District.

Mr. Womack spoke for 1½ hours, devoting the first hour in comparing very ably, by facts and figures, the administration of both parties in the two last Legislatures, very appropriately applying, "by their fruits ye shall know them," thus showing the fruits of both. One almost total ruin and a loss of liberty, the other as yet, only partial redemption of our finances and restoring and redeeming our liberties, alluded to the endorsement of Holden and his administration by the Radical Convention at Raleigh, and showed how an endorsement of Caldwell and his ticket would be an endorsement of the iniquitous Legislature of 1868-'70.

I learn from a gentleman who was at Cross' Store, in Chatham on last week, that Mr. Womack had a large crowd, and his speech had a very happy and telling effect. B. J. Howze, Radical candidate for the Legislature, was present, and Mr. W. proposed to divide time with him, as did Mr. London, but this weak-kneed, unshelled, precent convert for office, could not see it, as 'twas agin the orders of the leaders. Mr. London, as he always does, made a powerful effort for a man of his years, using the Fraud Commission with good effect, reviewed the cause and effects of Radical rule generally, dealing heavy blows to the Caldwell administration, spoke for one and a half hours.

I learn Mr. W. goes from here to Randolph, thence to Moore, where he intends making several speeches. Mr. L. also will be heard from till the election. Mr. W. is certainly a very pleasant, affable gentlemman, and has made here, I know, many friends, leaving all well impressed. Yours truly, ZENO.

GEN. CLINGMAN'S APPOINTMENTS.

Gen. T. L. Clingman will address his fellow-citizens at the several points stated below. His brigade was largely made up from some of these counties—a brigade which, while under his command for nearly three years, was in many ardous engagements, never broke in battle, and never failed to do its full duty in the hour of trial.

The General hopes to meet as many of his old comrades as may find it convenient to come out to the appointments indicated.

MEETING OF LIBERAL REPUBLICANS.

It will be seen from the notice of W. S. Mason, Chairman of the Liberal Republican Executive Committee, published in our advertising columns, that a meeting of Liberal Bepublicans will be held in this city on the 16th inst., to organize for the Presidential campaign.

The Baltimore Gazette, immediately after the nomination of Greeley at Baltimore, wheeled into line in his support. It frankly acknowledges that it had been among the number that thought the nomination at Cincinnati a mistake.

A young, pretty and wealthy Omaha widow, who had lost three husbands, took advantage of "leap year" by spiritual direction; proposed to the fourth and has now married him.

Miss Ida Greeley, the daughter of the incoming President, is described as a very pretty woman, only eighteen years of age, with large, lustrous, dark eyes, and beautiful glossy brown hair.

There is still a vast amount of feeling manifested in Grant's papers. They weep for "the glory and traditions of the Democratic party." The situation is very affecting.

Miss Etta Judkins, a beautiful Philadelphia belle, is said to be the most expert swimmer at Cape May this season.

Napoleon, ex-Emperor, drew $40,000 interest last May on conpons of United States bonds.

A CARD.

To The people of North Carolina:

In view of the approaching election, and my present relation to them, I deem it worth while to inform the people that my attention has been called to a scurrilous and libelous paper, extensively circulated in this State, entitled "Read And Circulate."

This paper is anonymous, and does not purport to have the sanction of any Editor, Publisher, political Committee or any body, but it is sent to the people under the Congressional frank of Hon. John Pool United States Senator.

It appropriately makes its first appearance in an obscure weekly paper, published in Washington City, called the "National New Era," edited by a negro named Fred Douglass.

The circular is infamously false, scandalous, and criminal. It imputes to me and other gentlemen, some on and others off the Democratic Conservative ticket for this State, the most infamous crimes against society and individuals, and it is so false, wanton and criminal, that it is not surprising that it is sent out to accomplish what evil it may without apparent sanction of, or attaching amenability to, any one.

It is so monstrously false and scandalous that I was amazed to learn that it was sent out to the people under the frank of Mr. Pool, and I therefore enquired of him, by letter, if it was so sent with his knowledge and consent. He informed me it was, but says it was a "rehash of newspaper articles." It is indeed a "rehash" made up in such an artful way as to charge in terms, by suggestion, artful argumentation, and innuendo against me and others, the most disreputable crimes and conduct against the people and State; and it illustrates a species of desperate and disreputable partizan warfare that can not be tolerated, much less justified, among a civilized people; nor do I believe the people of this State of any political party will do so.

So far as I am informed the Radical papers of the State, fruitful as they have been of misrepresentation and falsehood have not republished it,

I deem it due to the people and myself to say for the benefit of any such as might be misled by it, that in so far as it refers to myself the paper is in every material respect absolutely FALSE, SCANDALOUS, AND LIBELOUS, and I believe it is so in reference to the other gentlemen assailed.

In vindication of myself against this wanton attack, it is my purpose to bring suit against Pool, in the Superior Court of Wake, reserving to myself to take such other steps in the future as may be deemed proper.

I am more than willing that the truth shall be ascertained by a judicial tribunal for the better satisfaction of the public, and to the end, that professional politicians may learn that they cannot assail innocent men in such a way with impunity, I will give Mr. Pool the opportunity to make good the charges in the anonymous paper, if he can do so.

It has been suggested that such publications are legitimate in political contests like the present. This may be so according to the code of morals of a class of desperate political adventurers, but it is not so, in my judgment, among gentlemen, or a civilized and virtuous community. Nor do I believe the people of North Carolina of any party will endorse such shameless and groundless assaults upon innocent men, because they happen to be put forward by hundreds of their fellow-men for high, responsible and honorable offices.

The paper referred to is a base and criminal prostitution of the freedom of the press to accomplish the baser purposes of deceiving and misleading the popular mind. This good and patriotic men will not do, and the people of all classes may well distrust those who attempt it. A. S. MERRIMON.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE, AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premeums are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

Tune—"The Gum-Tree Canoe."

BY WILLIAM H. BAGLEY.

They went from the EAST and they went from the WEST,
Sent there by the people who love the land best;
The NORTH and the SOUTH had gathered there, too,
United once more "neath the red, white and blue."

Then, hip! hip!! hurrah!!!
Throw up your white hats,
And vote for the LIBERALS,
Old Horace and Gratz!

In that assemblage of heroes cheer rent upon cheer,
As our Jupiter TOWNSEND, CARL SCHURZ, did appear;
And the Angel of triumph smiled down on the scene
When Erin's JOHN COCHRANE came "wearing the green."

Then, hip! hip!! hurrah!!!
Corruption put down—
And vote for the LIBERALS,
Brave GREELEY and BROWN!

On the altar of Union dissension was laid—
PROTECTION sat down by the side of FREE TRADE,
And the passions, by mis-rule fanned into a storm,
Were hushed by the shouts of the hosts of REFORM!

Then, hip! hip!! hurrah!!!
Throw up your white hats,
And vote for the LIBERALS,
Old Horace and Gratz!

"Uncle Sam's" great plantation had grown up in weeds,
And Grant and his cousins were sowing more seeds—
The "OLD FARMER" was needed to weed out the straw,
And THE PEOPLE cried out "give us 'old Chappaqua'"!

Then, hip! hip!! hurrah!!!
For the Old Farmer's hoe,
It'll chop out corruption
As fast as they sow!

The Farm was in thickets and briars thick grown
And hurricanes, trees on the fences, had blown;
The "CHOPPER" was wanted, as every one saw,
For who could restore it but "old Chappaqua?"

Then, hip! hip!! hurrah!!!
For the wood-chopper's axe—
It'll cut off the stealing
And lessen the tax!

They are crossing "the chasm" "THE BLUE" and "THE GRAY,"
And soon the two colors will mingle away;
God bless the "OLD FARMER," and long may he live,
To teach a brave people, "FORGET AND FORGIVE!"

Then, hip! hip!! hurrah!!!
For the Hero so true,
Who clasps the GRAY hand
In that of the BLUE!

WATSON'S & CLARK'S

HIGH GRADE

Super-Phosphate of Lime.

Composed entirely of the Charleston Bone Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia. Warranted to analyse seven per cent. of Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.

We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-phosphate—after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to none other manufactured—not excepting Peruvian Guano and Pure Ground Bone, (having a better record for cotton than those)—to Planters and Dealers—in any quantity—at any railroad depot in the State, or at the factory, upon satisfactory terms.

Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad east of Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for $50 cash.

Put up in bags—very stout—for immediate use—or in good barrels—which we recommend as better, owing to the high grade of the article as ordered. Circulars and testimonials furnished upon application. All orders and communications addressed to
